Never finished high school?

Now you can get a diploma without going back

You already know why it's important to have a high school education. You've probably learned the hard way that it can be pretty difficult to get the kind of job you want without one. No matter how hard you're willing to work.

What can you do about it?

Maybe you've thought of trying again to get a diploma. But you've suffered enough classroom "battle fatigue" to last you a lifetime. So you'd hate to travel that route again even if you could.

But what if we told you that there was now a much better way to get a high school education? An adult way, which gives you regular high school subjects and your choice of practical vocational subjects which help you get started in one of a number of profitable fields.

That's the unique Wayne School way. You do your reading and assignments in your spare time, in the relaxed atmosphere of your own home, and "turn in" your completed assignments by mail. You don't have to give up your present job. You don't have to study or travel to class at inconvenient times.

And you needn't be afraid of dropping out all over again, if you had trouble with school before. Wayne's specially prepared lessons make even difficult subjects much easier to take. And Wayne grades your assignments in private, by mail. You're free from competitive classroom pressures. You stay relaxed, and your progress is much smoother.

If you're 17 or over and not now in school, why not send for more information? Mail coupon for our free booklet, "How to finish High School at home." You're in for a pleasant surprise.

Spy-All Lets You "See Through" Walls, Fences and Locked Doors!

Secret of Private Detectives and Industrial Spies Revealed!

A remarkable optical device about half the size of a cigarette now makes it possible for you to see without being seen. People who relax in "privacy" have no way of knowing that you can see everything they do!

Spy-All allows you to secretly observe every action—while you stay safely hidden. Operation of the tiny device is silent, almost impossible to detect. The eyepiece is no bigger than the head of a pin!

If you drilled an ordinary hole through a wall, fence or door, you could see very little. But installation of Spy-All's unique optical principle, called "X-pand," multiplies your field of vision. With X-pand, almost no detail or movement in a room can escape your Spy-All sight! That gives you some idea of Spy-All's powers! But the real surprise is the price: three dollars!

Unlimited Uses:

Spy-All's uses are limited only by your interests and imagination!

Spy-All can penetrate a 3-inch-thick wall in your home, office or factory. The highest fence or thickest door can't stop you from observing—without being observed!

Professional Uses Suggested:

Private and hotel detectives. Insurance investigators. Undercover agents. Security guards. Store owners—watch shoplifting suspects. Employers—get eye-witness proof of loafing or theft. Hospital staff—watch restless patients without disturbing them.

Camera hobbyists can even take pictures through its low-distortion lens! And Spy-All has possibilities that Candid Camera never dreamed of!

Order Spares and Extras!

Order spares so you're never denied sudden or unexpected opportunities. Order extras for trusted friends they might be glad to pay you a handsome profit.

The Spy-All principle was perfected in Germany. They are now being sold by a special division (Detection Appliances) of a reputable mail order firm, located at 466 North Western Avenue in Los Angeles. Their total sales throughout the U.S. are over $1,000,000. The owner has been a respected local businessman for 19 years.

5-Year Service Guarantee:

Spy-All is sold with this 5-year guarantee: If it fails to work due to any defect, without any charge, D.A. will either repair or replace it—or at its option, refund the purchase price.

On a busy day when a department store has a special sale, you can be sure the mothers will all be there. Since many of them can't leave the beloved offspring at home safely, little Mary or little John has to go with mother. The kid isn't interested in the fact that there is a special sale on women's hats or coats. The kid wants to go to the toy department.

Then suddenly mother discovers that her little child isn't hanging onto her hand. Where is he or she? Mother gets panicky. How can she ever go home and tell her husband she lost the heir to the family fortune?

This department store had a "lost - and - found" child section. But, nobody there was prepared for what the store detective brought in to them. He couldn't have been more than five years old. He was dressed in a lion's skin — imitation of course. Around his waist was a belt and a rubber knife stuck into it. In his left hand, he carried a small spear.

"What is your name, young man?" asked the matron smiling her best.

No reply to that one. He just beat his chest with his right hand. Again he was asked the same question and again no reply.

"Maybe he can't talk," sighed the matron. "What do I do?"

The store detective knew what to do. He went over to the microphone and broadcast a simple message: "We have Tiny Tarzan here on the 8th floor next to Personnel. Will his mother come?"

"Hey," smiled the kid. "How did you know my name?"

The Prescription

She certainly was beautiful — no doubt about it. He fell head over heels in love with her. After a whirlwind courtship of three months, they were married. He had a good job, earned a lot of money, and had some sound investments. They took a small, but comfortable apartment.

She insisted on being a good cook. After three days of her meals, he knew it was a losing fight. He had a lot of pains inside his stomach.

"You have a family doctor," she told her husband. "So, let us go to him at once. I can see by your face that you are in pain. I just hope it isn't serious."

He called up the family doctor who was very glad that this young man was now married.

"I brought you into this world," he said to him, "and I will do my best to keep you in it."

The appointment was for two thirty in the afternoon on Wednesday. She went with him to the doctor's office. First, her husband went inside for his examination. He remained in the office for twenty minutes. Then, he came out.

"The doctor wants to see you," he told her. "I really don't know why."

She was very much worried. But, the smile on the face of the old family physician put her at ease.

"I gave your husband a prescription," he said. "He will be better in three days. But, your prescription will take longer. You have to go to a cooking school and learn how to cook."

Fearless Phil

It happened on the thirty-eighth floor of the skyscraper that the Whidmore Construction Company was erecting. A large girder had slipped. If it went off the side, it would come crashing down into the street below wrecking parked cars and, perhaps, killing and injuring people. Below, the police were doing their best to clear that area. You could hear the police sirens and fire alarms sounding. On the other hand, if that girder slipped inside the framework of steel — everything could come tumbling down to the ground.

"We need somebody who will take a chance — one in a million. Climb out there. Fasten the chain around that girder. Then, the derrick can move it. Get such a man?

"I have," replied the foreman. "He's afraid of nothing. The boys call him Fearless Phil. I'll get him for you."

Fearless Phil faced Mr. Whidmore. Came right to the point of it.

"Here's a pen and a sheet of paper. Agree to pay me $10,000, and I'll do it for you."

"O.K.," said Mr. Whidmore. "You can save us millions. Go ahead."

It took three hours to do the job. Then, the derrick moved the girder to safety. Everyone cheered. Mr. Whidmore knew he had the right man for a big promotion.

"What in your background gave you nerves of steel?" He asked. "Army? Circus? Family tradition? Tell me. You're going to hit the headlines tonight."

"Only one preparation in the world can do it. You see, I was a school bus driver for five years. Afraid of nothing!"
